Immigration and Asylum

Scottish Parliament Written Answer

ESOL

Beatrice Wishart (Liberal Democrat) [S6W-22118] To ask the Scottish Government what funding it currently provides for English for speakers of other languages (ESOL) classes for asylum seekers and refugees.

Reply from Graeme Dey: In 2021-22 the Scottish Government provided £22,709,353 to colleges for ESOL courses in Scotland and we are committed to ensuring that everyone in Scotland whose first language is not English can contribute to Scotland's future and the society they live in. Having support to learn English is key for many refugees and asylum seekers to communicate, enter education, find employment, and access information on healthcare, housing and other services that they require.

In addition, through the Supporting New Scots Fund, the New Scots partnership awarded a total of £179,431.00 to nine organisations across Scotland to deliver ESOL provision for refugees.

Figures for 2022-23 will be available in January 2024.

Scottish Parliament Motion

Kenneth Gibson (SNP) [S6M-11207] 85th Anniversary of Kristallnacht Highlights Increasing Antisemitism – That the Parliament commemorates the victims of Kristallnacht, also known as the Night of Broken Glass or the November Pogrom, a destructive campaign of violence against Jewish people and their communities, on its 85th anniversary; understands that, throughout the night of 9-10 November 1938, the Nazi Party and its collaborators targeted almost every synagogue and Jewish prayer room in Germany, with over 1,400 burned or badly damaged, 7,500 Jewish businesses across Germany and Austria vandalised, and at least 91 people murdered, with a further 30,000 Jewish men being arrested and taken to concentration camps, where many more died; further understands that this was followed by hundreds of suicides in the Jewish community and mass emigration; recognises the Conference on Jewish Material Claims Against Germany's relaunched campaign, #ItStartedWithWords, highlighting that the Holocaust did not start with camps, ghettos and deportations, but with words of hate; understands that this campaign is important, in light of what it sees as the growing prevalence of Holocaust denial, distortion and hate speech towards Jewish communities and individuals in many countries and online; notes with concern recent reports that more than 1,000 hate incidents have taken place across the UK against British Jews since the Hamas terrorist attacks on 7 October 2023, the highest 28-day total recorded since the Community Security Trust began tracking antisemitic attacks in 1984, and a 537% increase compared to the same period in 2022; recognises the resilience of Holocaust survivors who have taken part in this campaign and continue to highlight the barbaric actions that took place during the Second World War, particularly following what it sees as the unacceptable rise in antisemitism throughout the last month, and continues to remember the six million Jewish people and others targeted due to ethnicity, religion, political beliefs and sexual orientation who were victims of Nazi persecution.

UK Parliament Early Day Motions

Christine Jardine (Liberal Democrat) [26] Islamophobia Awareness Month – That this House supports Islamophobia Awareness Month, which is taking place this November; recognises the incredible contributions that British Muslims make to our country; acknowledges that anti-Muslim sentiment is far too prevalent in our society; notes with concern that the horrifying Israel-Gaza conflict has led to a rise in Islamophobia in the UK, with Tell MAMA reporting a sevenfold increase of anti-Muslim incidents between 7 and 29 October compared to the same period last year; emphasises the importance of standing up to religious hatred in all its forms; and calls on the Government to ensure that public bodies have the resources and training they need to identify and prevent hate crimes.

The King's Speech 2023: Background Briefing Notes

https://assets.publishing.service.gov.uk/media/654a21952f045e001214dcd7/The_King_s_Speech_background_briefing_notes.pdf

The King's Speech sets out 21 Bills for the coming session:

- Animal Welfare (Kept Animals) Bill

England, Scotland, and Wales

The Bill is intended to strengthen animal welfare, including banning live exports, ensuring high welfare standards in UK slaughterhouses, and preventing export to countries with lower welfare slaughterhouse conditions.

- Arbitration Bill

England, Wales, and Northern Ireland

The Bill is intended to modernise the law on arbitration, including clarifying the law governing arbitration agreements, empowering arbitrators to expedite decisions on issues that have no real prospect of success, and introducing a statutory duty on arbitrators to disclose circumstances which might give rise to justifiable doubts about their impartiality.

- Automated Vehicles Bill

England and Wales

The Bill is intended to enable the safe deployment of self-driving vehicles, including setting rigorous safety standards, ensuring clear legal liability, and protecting the consumer.

- Criminal Justice Bill
England and Wales. Some provisions will also apply in Scotland and Northern Ireland
 The Bill is intended to reform the criminal justice system and give the police the powers necessary to keep people safe, including tackling violence against women and girls, cracking down on the crimes and anti-social behaviour, and ensuring that criminals spend longer in prison.
- Data Protection and Digital Information Bill
UK-wide
 The Bill is intended to maintain high standards of data protection while improving data access and reducing burdens on businesses and researchers. It will include improving data delivery, establishing a framework for secure digital verification services, and strengthening and modernising regulation.
- Digital Markets, Competition and Consumers Bill
UK-wide
 The Bill is intended to introduce a new regulatory regime in digital markets, and tackle consumer rip-offs and bad business practices.
- Draft Rail Reform Bill
UK-wide
 The Bill is intended to facilitate punctual and reliable services, simpler tickets, and a modern and innovative railway.
- Economic Activities of Public Bodies (Overseas Matters) Bill
UK-wide
 The Bill is intended to ensure that the UK has a consistent foreign policy, and that public bodies do not pursue their own foreign policy agendas.
- Football Governance Bill
England and Wales
 The Bill is intended to establish an Independent Football Regulator to address issues of financial sustainability and ensure fans' voices are listened to.
- Holocaust Memorial Bill
England and Wales
 The Bill is intended to ensure the Holocaust is never forgotten and antisemitism is driven out of our society. The barbaric attack by Hamas on Israeli civilians on 7 October 2023 and the rise in antisemitism in the days and weeks after serves as a reminder that we must never give up doing so. It will include enabling the building of the planned Holocaust Memorial and Learning Centre next to the Houses of Parliament.
- Investigatory Powers (Amendment) Bill
UK-wide
 The Bill is intended to give the security and intelligence services the powers they need to respond to threats to national security, and strengthen independent judicial oversight.
- Leasehold and Freehold Bill
England and Wales

The Bill is intended to reform the housing market by making it cheaper and easier for leaseholders to purchase their freehold.

- Media Bill

UK-wide

The Bill is intended to ensure that viewers and listeners across the UK can continue to access public service television and radio content as technology changes. It will include removal of a threat to the freedom of the press, better protection for children by applying similar standards for TV to the streaming giants, and providing greater access to subtitles, audio description, and signed interpretation.

- Offshore Petroleum Licensing Bill

UK-wide

The Bill is intended to strengthen the United Kingdom's energy security, and reduce reliance on volatile international energy markets and hostile foreign regimes.

- Pedicabs (London) Bill

England and Wales (but will apply only in Greater London)

The Bill is intended to deal with the issue of unlicensed pedicabs in London.

- Renters (Reform) Bill

England and Wales

The Bill is intended to provide greater security and certainty of quality accommodation for renters, while helping landlords get their property back swiftly when needed, such as evicting anti-social tenants or those repeatedly in rent arrears.

- Sentencing Bill

England and Wales

The Bill is intended to ensure tougher sentences for the most serious offenders and increase the confidence of victims. It will include mandating courts to impose a Whole Life Order in cases for which a Whole Life Order is currently the starting point, ensuring rapists, and those convicted of the most serious sexual offences serve every day of their custodial term behind bars, and introducing a presumption in favour of a suspended sentence for custodial sentences of twelve months or fewer.

- Terrorism (Protection of Premises) Bill

UK-wide

The Bill is intended to improve the safety and security of public venues and keep the public safe from terrorism, including requiring certain venues to fulfil necessary but proportionate steps according to their capacity to mitigate the impact of a terrorist attack and reduce harm. The duties that premises will have will depend on the size of the venue. Premises and events with a capacity of 800 or above will be in the enhanced tier, while premises with a capacity of 100 to 799 will be in the standard tier.

Before the Bill is introduced, the Government will hold a consultation on the standard tier to ensure the Bill's measures strike the right balance between public protection and avoiding undue burdens on smaller premises such as village halls, churches and other community venues.

- Tobacco and Vapes Bill

England and Wales

The Bill is intended to tackle the single biggest entirely preventable cause of ill-health, disability and death: smoking, and will to create a smokefree generation by restricting the sale of tobacco so that children currently aged fourteen or younger can never be sold cigarettes, and to restrict the sale and marketing of e-cigarettes to children.

- Trade (Comprehensive and Progressive Agreement for TransPacific Partnership) Bill

UK-wide

The Bill is intended to promote trade and investment with countries in the Comprehensive and Progressive Agreement for TransPacific Partnership. The UK is the first European member of the Partnership.

- Victims and Prisoners Bill

England and Wales

The Bill is intended to improve the experience of the criminal justice system for victims and restore confidence. It includes introducing an Independent Public Advocate (IPA) which will work on behalf of victims of major incidents, reforming the parole system, and creating an automatic suspension of parental responsibility from a person who is convicted of murder or voluntary manslaughter of the other person with whom they share parental responsibility (“Jade’s Law”).

SCoJeC
Scottish Council of Jewish Communities

Representing, connecting, and supporting Jewish people in Scotland

The Scottish Council of Jewish Communities (SCoJeC) is the representative body of all the Jewish communities in Scotland. It advances public understanding about the Jewish religion, culture and community, and also works in partnership with other organisations to promote good relations and understanding among community groups and to promote equality. (Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation SC029438) <https://www.scojec.org/>

BEMIS is the Scottish national Ethnic Minorities led umbrella body, supporting, empowering, and building the capacity of minority third sector community organisations. As a strategic partner with Government, it is proactive in influencing the development of race equality policy in Scotland, and helps develop and progress multicultural Scotland, active citizenship, democracy, and Human Rights Education at the Scottish, UK, and European levels. (Scottish Charity, no. SC027692) <http://www.bemis.org.uk/>

The Scottish Government is committed to promoting equality of opportunity and social justice for all those who live in Scotland. One Scotland is the Scottish Government campaign designed to tackle racism. It aims to raise awareness of racist attitudes, highlight its negative impact and recognise the valuable contributions that other cultures have made to our society – and make Scotland no place for racism. <http://www.gov.scot/>
